

APM PMQ for PRINCE2® Practitioners (Project Management Qualification) with exam BoK7

About APM PMQ

APM (Association for Project Management) is the only organisation in the world to be given chartered status in the project management industry. The PMQ course is the management level qualification in their suite of project management qualifications. APM PMQ is an internationally recognised knowledge based qualification (IPMA Level D) that enables individuals to demonstrate their knowledge for successful delivery of projects. Using the globally renowned APM 'body of knowledge' (APMBoK), as its reference point, this course is perfect for anyone wanting to make a positive contribution to any part of the project team. This course entails exactly the same content as PMQ but has a specially designed (shorter) exam for PRINCE2® Practitioners, recognising their current understanding of running projects.

Learning objectives

- Appreciate business processes and lifecycle models for projects and project management.
- Use critical path analysis techniques and manage resource conflicts.
- Contribute to the development of the business case.
- Select and apply appropriate project monitoring and control methods.
- Use a systematic approach to analysing and planning a project.
- Consider and apply appropriate conflict management and negotiating techniques.
- Appreciate the project context and actively manage the project stakeholders.
- Apply work breakdown structures and map responsibilities.
- Appreciate the context and relevance of project change control processes.
- Recognise the importance of developing effective leadership skills and communication techniques.
- Prepare for the APM PMQ examination.

Course approach.

This course is the PMQ for PRINCE2® Practitioners with exam level course.

PMQ for PRINCE2® Practitioners: Management level for those Project Managers requiring formal best-practice project management training. Prospective work package managers, project managers or other key project personnel looking to develop their project management career skills. Project Managers wishing to attain a formal, and widely recognised, project management qualification.

Attendees would benefit from possessing some good basic project management skills, or from attendance on the APM Project Fundamentals Qualification course. Ideally a minimum of 6 months actual experience of working on a project would also be beneficial.
